

Job: Interior Designer
Location: Houston, TX
Employment Status: Full-time
Job Function: Residential custom new construction specifications

Company Description: Our Company is a small interior design company specializing in construction specifications for high-end custom homes and remodel in the Houston area.

Job Description: We are looking for an experienced designer, or a very able assistant designer-who is ready to design for custom homebuilders and remodel. A minimum of 3 to 5 years experienced is required. Degree and License preferred. The work is very fast pace and at times intense. Candidate must be able to work with minimal supervision. The position requires a highly organized person, as our service includes very detailed specifications forms, as well as, 2-D CAD drawings of tile designs and interior elevations. Candidate must have the ability to creatively solve design-construction problems, and often times serve as a liaison between builder, buyer, and contractor. This is an excellent opportunity for a designer looking to work independently on assigned accounts with unlimited room for growth. We will consider hiring designer plus assistant.

Core Qualifications:

Must possess excellent knowledge in the following:

- Residential construction- all phases as it relates to design
- Finishes- tile, granite, wood, carpet, paints, etc
- Lighting, plumbing, door & cabinet hardware
- Installation of the above
- 2-D AutoCAD ex., tile floors, kitchen backsplash, shower designs
- Strong sense of color and material combinations
- Sales, typing, general computer skills, excel

Other Qualifications

Must possess solid working knowledge of the following:

- Space planning
- Design of custom draperies and bedding and all relevant skills to facilitate fabrication
- Reupholstery and refinishing and all relevant skills to facilitate fabrication
- Shutters, blinds & shades
- Furniture
- Art, oriental rugs, custom area rugs, wallpaper, faux finishing
- Sketching

Competitive salary/commission - benefits include health care

If you have experience in at least some of the areas listed above, your résumé will be given consideration. Although we are not hiring inexperienced designers at this time, you may submit your résumé for future consideration.

To apply: Send Résumé
Contact: John Leonard
Managing Director
john@laurathompsondesign.net